

Invitation to Tender ITT/SCI/CAM/2020/004 Mobile Money Transfer services

Save the Children International in Cambodia has received an additional funding under USAID Cambodia's Family Care First (FCF) program to support USAID in mitigating the secondary impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic to implement the project activities for the period June 2020 to Dec 2021.

Save the Children International (SCI) invites you to tender to become a preferred supplier under a framework agreement for the provision of Mobile Money Transfer services to individuals and households selected by Save the Children, as recipients of its humanitarian and non-humanitarian assistance. This tender pack has been specifically created to provide you with all the information required to understand SCI's requirements, and complete a response to the tender.

Detailed technical specifications are included within the tender documents.

If you are interested in submitting a bid, please contact Mr. Taing Sotheara, Director of Support Service at the following address to request for full tender documents:
